Mr. Timothy Newell Pfeiffer,
120 Broadway,
New York, New York.

Dear Sir:

You will find attached copies of several letters in regard to the proposed visit to St. Petersburg of Mr. William C. Stevens, about which you wrote me on December 31st.

As you will note in my letter to Mr. Stevens, I interviewed the editors of our local papers, and also called at the Central Hotel where Mr. Stevens has stayed during his previous visits to this city. At the hotel I was referred to the owner, and you will find attached a copy of my letter to him and his reply. By this time, Mr. Stevens has no doubt also received word from Mr. Buss.

I have been waiting to hear from Mr. Buss before writing to Mr. Stevens, and I trust the delay has caused the latter no inconvenience. Kindly convey to him our best wishes, and tell him that the sun is still shining in St. Petersburg.

Very truly yours,

P. V. Gahan
